Dennis C Miller rocked the house at NATCON 22 in Washington DC. He is extremely entertaining, insightful, educational, personable, and engaging. Those in attendance were so personally impressed with his personal story and presentation that they didn't want him to leave the stage - too bad there's a limit on the length of a Ted Talk. He's simply that engaging. Do yourself a favor - get Dennis C Miller for your next audience and instill hope where you may feel there is little or none. You can thank me later.

We appreciate our partners and the value you bring to the table. I personally appreciated you being so real and vulnerable about your experience balancing all of life's challenges. Here's what Dennis' audiences have to say about "Moppin' Floors to CEO: Leadership Lessons about Perseverance and Determination"

"Engaging presentation style"

Dennis' presentation of "Moppin' Floors to CEO" and his message of never giving up was perfect for our students as they finished their first year at Fairleigh Dickinson University. Dennis has an engaging presentation style that uses humor as well as touching personal stories to make his message relevant and effective for today's college students. The feedback from the students was terrific, which was evident by the large majority of them who sought out to meet him and get his autograph on his book at the end of the event!
